Mixed Bird Shooting at Rønningesøgaard

The Hunting Estate of Rønningesøgaard is situated on the island of Fyn and offers 3000 ha of best shooting grounds and ponds for an exciting experience. Specially the duck shooting is remarkable, offering 4 different species of ducks. We are shooting from old gravel pits, ponds and lakes. The pheasant shooting is classic English style with birds on different heights and speed.

Varbjerg Lodge is a typical Danish country house with 8 cosy double rooms with bath en-suite, a large living and dining room and a nice garden. A private chef is preparing breakfast and dinners for you.

You can also stay at the famous Broholm Castle. Surrounded by green, rolling hills and idyllically located in the south of Fyn, Broholm dates back to the 12th century and has been owned by the same family for 13 generations. Guest rooms are individually decorated in an antique, romantic style with modern amenities. Danish dishes with a French touch are served at a private dining room and a private living room with fire pit is our place then for the after dinner drinks and chats.
